

Port Artists Show Paintings at N.Y.C. Gallery

Rachelle Krieger and Shellie Schneider of Port, both members of the Art Advisory Council at the Port Washington Public Library, will be showing their paintings at the Dorian Grey Gallery from May 19 to June 19, with an opening reception on May 19 from 6-9 p.m. The Dorian Grey Gallery is owned and curated by Port resident Christopher Pusey and is located at 437 East 9th St. at Ave. A in New York City.

"No Rules, The Women of East Ninth Street Revisited, 1951-2011" is the title of the art show at the Dorian Grey Gallery. Borrowing from the famous quote by Helen Frankenthaler, "There are no rules. That is how art is born, how breakthroughs happen..." This exhibition celebrates the 60th Anniversary of the groundbreaking East Ninth Street Show by featuring many of the pioneering women who participated in that historic group show on E. 9th Street in 1951.

A diverse selection of works

Pictured are local artists Shellie Schneider and Rachelle Krieger.

are presented by such noted talents as Elaine deKooning, Perle Fine, Helen Frankenthaler, Grace Hartigan, Joan Mitchell, Claire Falkenstein, Judy Pfaff, Erin Hudak, Cecile Brunswick, Rebecca Alston and Susan Libby Siegel. These are displayed alongside the next generation, including Shellie Schneider and Rachelle Krieger who continue the tradition of going against the "rules" of painting and sculpture.

Regular gallery hours are Tuesday through Sunday from 12-7 p.m. For more information, contact Christopher Pusey at (516) 244-4126 or visit the gallery's website at www.doriangreygallery.com.